“

My work is inspired by my view of the whētu when I was a tamariki. I would look up at the night sky and imagine Matariki their mother, looking after her kids.

Because they were so well loved they were capable of doing magical things. I also thought about how they could be haututu when they were grounded. By tapping into my child-self's depiction of ngā iwi o Matariki, i have created these colouring in sheets to also tap into the imagination of tamariki.
